QUICK PRECEPTION .- Fifty years ago the famous surgeon of London was Sir Astley Cooper. He was remarkable for his manual dexterity and also for the quickness and accuracy with which at a glance he took in the whole signation. A striking proof of his penetration was given on his being called to attend a Mr. Blight, who had been shot by an unknown seeseein.

The moment Sir Astley examined the wound he said: "A pi-tol has been fired at

On seeing Mr. Fatch, Blight's pariner, he was so struck by the peculiar expression of his conceenance that he whispered: "If that gentieman were left-handed I should suspent him of height he murderer." pect him of being the murderer."

THE DOG SWALLOWED THE DIAMOND. Mrs. Clara Louise Kellogg-Strakosch, who is living at her summer home at New Hartford, Conu., was petting a stronge dog last Saturday, when he seized a diamond ring she had removed from one hand and was holding in the other. The dog swallowed the jewel, which had gost the owner $350, and the prime donna began negotiating for the purchase of the dog. The owner agreed to part with the dog for 50 cents, which Mrs. Strakosch giadly paid. The animal's value has now risen to $350.50.

INFESTED WITH TRAMPS. -It is alloged that the city is infested with a number of tramps, who are prowling about picking up a living in ways peculiar to themselves. Several houses have been raid-ed upon in the lowest part of the city and perty thieving has been going on to an slarming extent, ail due, it is believed, to the presence of these tramps in the city. The police are on the alert and are determined to drive the tramps out of town .-Danville Register.

WHEN TO SIT AND WHEN TO SET .- A man, or woman either, can set a hen, although they cannot sit her; neither can they set on her, although the old hen might sit on them by the hour if they the old hen might sit on them by the hour if they would allow. A man cannot set on the wash beach, but he could set the basin on it, and neither the basin nor the grammarians would object. He could sit on the dog's tail if the dog was willing, or he might set his foot on it. But if he anould set on the aforesaid tail or sit his foot there, the grammarians as well as the dog would how!. And yet, strange as it may seem, the man might set the tail and and then sit down, and outlant he assailed by the dog nor the grammarneither be assailed by the dog nor the gr-mmar-
